

Media Contact:

Cheri La Spada

610-571-2221, ext. 4

PR@angelsontheatlantic.org

(Back row from left to right) Vince Hubach, Rev. James Rodia, O. Praem, Mrs. Myra S. DiNicola (Principal), Mrs. Kathleen Rice (Teacher Assistant) and Susan O'Brien (8th grade teacher)

(Front row from left to right) Third grade students John McNally, Annie McNally and Patrick McNally

ST. NORBERT'S CREATES A DAY AT THE BEACH FOR ANGELS ON THE ATLANTIC

St. Norbert's Catholic School in Paoli celebrated Catholic Schools Week (January 25-30) by launching a fundraiser for Angels on the Atlantic, a local non-profit organization for underserved, inner-city youth that delivers a variety of beachside educational and recreational activities at its beachfront location in Ocean City, N.J.

More than 200 students raised $1,300 for the organization in addition to collecting more than 100 bathing suits for Angels on the Atlantic visitors. Donations will be used to fund beach visits for local inner-city children. Vince Hubach, the founder of Angels on the Atlantic, was presented with the check during the school's prayer service on Friday, February 6th.

Angels on the Atlantic, Inc. is a non-profit organization for underserved, inner-city youth that delivers a variety of fun beachside educational and recreational activities at its beachfront location in Ocean City, N.J. Since 2006, Angels of the Atlantic has offered a diverse range of programs and activities for more than 4,700 underserved, inner-city children from Philadelphia and Camden, N.J. The organization's mission is the vision of Vince and Jeanie Hubach who created Angels on the Atlantic as a way to inspire and motivate inner-city youth to overcome adversity and pursue further learning to achieve greater personal goals.

###